NOTICE

Further to his Public Notice of March 13, 2020 relating to the new precautionary measures applied by the Embassy of Cameroon in Washington DC and the Government's decision to close the borders of Cameroon from March 18, 2020,

The Ambassador of Cameroon to the United States, His Excellency Henri ETOUNDI ESSOMBA, informs the public that THE ISSUANCE OF ENTRY VISAS TO CAMEROON IS SUSPENDED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

Furthermore, he reiterates the measures already taken by the Mission concerning the renewal of passports and the issuance of consular documents:

- Applications for consular documents (birth certificates, certified copies, legalizations, etc.) must be sent to consular services by MAIL ONLY at 2349 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington DC, 20008.
- Appointments for passport applications and renewals, already obtained as from March 16 to April 03, 2020, will be rescheduled.

Any new measures concerning nationals will be communicated when necessary and, in the meantime, the Ambassador encourages compatriots to strictly observe US authorities' preventive guidelines.

THE AMBASSADOR
