ANNOUNCEMENT

The Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Cameroon to the United States of America, H.E. ETOUNDI ESSOMBA, hereby informs the public regarding the following guidelines, in force starting August 02nd, 2023, and relating to money order payments for consular services, as prescribed by the Embassy's bank:

- The recipient (the Embassy of Cameroon) and the applicant/remitter's information (full name and address) must be written legibly. All blank money orders, or money orders missing either the remitee or the remitter's information will be rejected.
- Money orders must be made payable exclusively to "Embassy of Cameroon", in English. Money orders made out to "Ambassade de la République du Cameroun" will be rejected.

Please refer to the image below for illustration:

Must be made out to "Embassy of Cameroon"

Remitter information must be present. Applicants must make sure that this section of the money order is filled-out or it will be rejected.

The Organization's name must be printed in English (Embassy of Cameroon). Money orders made out to "Ambassade de la République du Cameroun" will be rejected.

Any money order with missing remitter information will be rejected.

The Ambassador counts on everyone's understanding and strict compliance to these guidelines. /-

The Ambassador

ETOUNDI ESSOMBA
